

Others:

2 minute rule: when you are called to the line and are not present you will be put on the 2 minute clock. You will then have 2 minutes to make forward progress to come to the line and race. If you do not show you will then scratch your run.

If you are coming to the line and you are shut down due to official time out or red light you will have 5 minutes to make forward progress coming to the line or to get the vehicle started if sitting on the line after being called back to the line.

If truck breaks at line you have 1 chance to try again( 2 min. rule). In running order.

If 20 foot mark is not broken you have 1 chance to try again( 2 min. rule). In running order.

All final decision are upon officials discretion.
